This charming period apartment, of 200 square meters and cared for in every detail, is located in a building with all common parts renovated, including a large terrace on the floor of about 100 square meters, equipped with irrigation system and hot water. The entrance opens onto an elegant double living room with dining room, embellished with beautiful mosaic floors from Genoa. Adjacent are a loft studio and an eat-in kitchen with double French windows and direct access to the terrace, an ideal area for outdoor dining during the summer. The sleeping area,
