DESCRIPTION

Portion of farmhouse with spectacular views

Surrounded by the lush hillside landscape of Alassio, the rustic portion is a unique dwelling, set in a landscape that offers breathtaking views of the gulf below, where the blue of the sea merges with the blue of the sky in an endless embrace. Surrounded by olive groves and orchards typical of the Ligurian maquis, the mansion represents an oasis of peace and authenticity. Characterized by a rustic and cozy design, it features terracotta floors and solid wood beams that draw a warm and familiar atmosphere, full of charm. The charming fireplace in the living room is the beating heart of the house, intimate and convivial, enhanced by the large windows that flood the spaces with natural light and provide postcard-perfect sunsets. An internal staircase separates the living area from the sleeping area: on the upper floor we find a spacious and bright bedroom, an elegant study, a large bathroom with bathtub and masonry shower and, on the highest floor, the master bedroom with en suite bathroom and private terrace. A large double garage completes the property. Ideal as a main residence or vacation home, it is the perfect place where you can find yourself, live in harmony with the environment and be inspired by the beauty that this corner of paradise offers every day.
