Prestigious Venetian Villa in Dolo

VILLA BARBARIGO -Overlooking the splendid Riviera del Brenta, Villa Barbarigo is a historic home whose fascinating history spans from the 18th century to the present day. A typical example of Venetian architecture, the villa is distinguished by a harmonious succession of lounges and cozy rooms, finely renovated in 2005. Currently used as a private residence, the villa is furnished with style and elegance. The interior rooms follow a classic distribution, with large halls that enjoy a double view: of the centuries-old park and the picturesque Riviera del Brenta. The rooms, spacious and bright, alternate with elegant reception areas, ideal for moments of conviviality and relaxation. An element of great charm is the open space attic with exposed beams, which gives a 360° panoramic view of the surrounding park. Completing the property is a large cellar with stone truss vaults, perfect for housing a rich wine collection. Although devoid of frescoes, the villa retains a sober and majestic elegance, with rooms with modern and refined decorations that blend perfectly with the Venetian style and architecture of the period, bound to the Fine Arts and Landscape. Villa Barbarigo represents the ideal solution for those who wish to live in a prestigious historical residence, in the heart of Dolo, along the renowned route between Padua and Venice, immersed in the timeless charm of Venetian villas.
