DESCRIPTION

Stazzo sea view with large land

On the gentle hills of Porto Istana, in a panoramic position overlooking the Gulf of Olbia, we offer for sale a charming renovated stazzo, perfect for those seeking tranquility, privacy, and a natural setting of great value. The property blends authentic Gallura style with modern comforts, creating a balanced and functional living solution. The private plot measures around 1,500 sqm, fully fenced and well maintained. The outdoor space is ideal for open-air living, relaxing areas, summer dining, or moments of conviviality. The surrounding Mediterranean vegetation ensures privacy and a pleasant natural atmosphere. The generous garden also allows for the possibility of adding a small private pool, further enhancing the value of the property. The interiors, approximately 100 sqm, are arranged in a simple and practical way. The living room is bright, thanks to windows overlooking the surrounding greenery, and is suitable for everyday living. The eat-in kitchen is functional and opens directly onto a terrace with a sea view, a real highlight for enjoying breakfast or dinner with a scenic backdrop. The sleeping area includes three double bedrooms, two of which feature private bathrooms, ensuring comfort and privacy even when hosting guests. A third bathroom and a laundry room with boiler complete the interior layout, making the home convenient for year-round use. The atmosphere recalls the essential lines of traditional stazzi, combined with the practicality of modern living. The location is extremely convenient: despite being surrounded by greenery, the property is only a few minutes from the renowned Porto Istana beaches, famous for white sand and crystal-clear waters, and a short drive from all main services in Olbia, including the airport, port, shops, and schools. This makes the property suitable both as a primary residence and as a holiday home or rental investment. A rare opportunity in the area, ideal for those seeking privacy, nature, and a sea view that enhances the entire property.
