DESCRIPTION

Eighteenth-century villa for sale - Belluno

At the outlet of the Val Canzoi, at the foot of the Dolomites, stands an ancient residential complex immersed in what was once a private park of 6,000 square meters. The first certain evidence dates back to the XVIII century, when the mansion was inhabited by noble families, but the structure hints at even more remote origins. Externally, the villa features overlapping frescoes in three different layers, evidence of eras and styles that are harmoniously intertwined. The interiors preserve original stone slab floors, monumental fireplaces and precious historic frescoes, elements that keep intact the authentic charm of the dwelling. The property requires a partial renovation, as two of the four apartments have already been completely renovated. In addition to residential use, the property offers extraordinary potential for an accommodation facility, thanks to the large indoor and outdoor spaces and the valuable natural setting. On the north side of the large garden, entirely enclosed by period walls, there are ancient greenhouses and plant workshops, favored by the hillside exposure that guarantees sun and warmth even in the winter months. The apartments are equipped with independent LPG heating and wood stoves. Energy Class: G
